

CONTENTS

List of illustrations / IX

Contributors / XII

- 1 Introduction: Why this book? / 1
DAGMAR KUTSAR AND ILONA PÁLNÉ KOVÁCS

Part I

Insights into European science policies framework / 7

- 2 International research collaboration in Europe: Strategy and role of the European Science Foundation / 9
JOHN MARKS AND BALÁZS KISS
- 3 The inclusiveness of the European Research Area in the field of social sciences and humanities and the ways and means by which this could be better achieved / 34
DIMITRI CORPAKIS

Part II

State of the art of social sciences and international co-operation in Central and Eastern European countries 57

- 4 The problématique of structures: Social sciences and Central and Eastern Europe in flux / 59
IIRIS VIRTASALO AND JOUNI JARVINEN
- 5 The involvement of Central and Eastern European data archives and data providers in forming a pan-European research infrastructure for social sciences / 12
BRIGITTE HAUSSTEIN
- 6 Social sciences in Central and Eastern Europe: Institutional landscapes / 85
AGNIESZKA WENNINGER
- 7 Collaboration of the social science researchers of Central and Eastern European countries in European research programmes during the period 1994-2006 / 99
ÜLLE MUST
- 8 Inequalities in the Central and Eastern European research area: Challenges of regional decentralisation / 115
GYULA HORVÁTH

Part III

Country case studies

- 9 Czech science policy in social sciences and humanities: Towards transformation and catching up 133
ADOLF FILÁČEK
- 10 Paving Romania's way towards the European Research Area / 154
DALINA DUMITRESCU
- 11 In isolation parochial standards persist: The case of the social sciences in Bulgaria / 181
GALIN GORNEV
- 12 An evaluation system of the science and international orientation of social scientists: The case of Slovenia / 192
ANTON KRAMBERGER AND FRANCO MALI
- 13 Conclusion: Internationalisation of Central and Eastern European social sciences - is the catching up a myth or reality? / 215
DAGMAR KUTSAR AND ILONA PÁLNÉ KOVÁCS

Index / 228